Forever and one day

Save my tears with your mouth
And trink them softly
Make my fears go away
And let me bask in you
Nowhere is the end
Then I will cry away
Here by your side
And bask... forever and one day

The hands are cold
Hold it for an infinite time
It could be endless
So hold them... forever and one day

I dreamt it always... again and again
So don't let me go... forever and one day

For some times
One explanation never found
Read in my eyes... forever and one day

Yet it is so cold
On your knees I lie
Under your breath I die... on the last day of infinity
