Broken Trust

I thought you were my friend
I see I'm mistaken in the end
You betrayed me when I needed you the most
Though you were my friend...so I supposed
When I was alone and crying
You weren't there
You left me alone...while my heart was dying
But I wanted to trust you so
You were my friend...don't you know?
But now I do not know if you are my friend anymore
You broke my trust and now my heart is sore
So tell me...what should I do?
Sometimes I think I am madly in love with you.
