I found you
Lying there
Crying there.

Tears where running over your face
Over your body
Till they were caught by your clothes.

Your screaming all the time
Maked me think about life and god.
How can somebody want another person to cry to scream?

She wanted to en her life
Because I was gone to heaven.
I had to talk to her
To show her what's good in life.
But I can't.
She didn't hear me.
She won't hear me anymore.
